Friday: Colder, unsettled weather. Temperature yesterday, minimum 33 degrees, maximum 51 degrees. The Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone company report to midnight is, rain at Dallas, Fort Worth, Paris, Dallas. Cloudy, no rain at Texarkana, Austin. Clear at Austin and Cleburne.

Wesley Choir Notice.
Wesley choir will meet at the church at 7 o'clock tonight for practice. All members please be present.

Is Quite Sick.
Little Mel Franklin is reported as being quite sick at the home of his uncle, C. M. Rucker.

Marriage Licenses.
G. L. Edwards and Emma Lawrence.
George D. Hays and Clara Warner.

The Colonial Today.
There will be all new motion pictures with illustrated songs today at the Colonial.

Baptist Choir Notice.
The choir of the First Baptist church will meet for practice at 7 o'clock tonight. Members please be on hand promptly.

Modern Woodmen.
T. P. Flagg, clerk, announced a meeting of the Modern Woodmen at 7:30 tonight. Members requested to attend.

Off For Visits.
H. Anderson has gone to Cordell, Okla., for a visit and his family is visiting in Lone Oak during his absence.

Cotton Market.
Last cotton brought 15 cents yesterday. Seed cotton $1.30 to $1.50. There were 80 bales received making a total of 12,711 bales.

Presbyterian Choir.
The choir of the First Presbyterian church will meet to practice for the Christmas night song service, at 8 o'clock this afternoon instead of Saturday afternoon as formerly announced.

Home From Denison.
Misses Willette and Ella May Pennington, Minnie Turner and Allie Way Cooper, who are attending St. Xavier Academy at Denison, returned home yesterday for the holiday vacation.

Gone on a Hunt.
Harry Brown, Tom Kinloch, Geo. McAlister, Bert Dunning, Mr. Darby, J. L. Beckham, Toke Maddox at this city and Mr. Giles of Gordon, left yesterday morning for the Bend river for a holiday hunt.

I have 100 acres of good land all in cultivation. Will sell cheap with small cash payment. Also 88 acres, with good house, all in cultivation for sale cheap, small cash payment. Might run these farms to right party for 1911. S. E. Tippett, Greenville, Texas.

Prof. Walton at Sulphur Springs.
Principal E. H. Walton, of Quinton, was attending the Hopkins County Teachers' Institute at Sulphur Springs yesterday. While there he presented the plans of organization to the Texas Teachers' Reading Circle to the assembly.

At the Lyric.
An act considerably funnier than the ordinary is the one by Harry P. Mann. He does grotesque singing and dancing and it is screamingly funny. The house was kept in a state of laughter at yesterday's performance and Feldman was encored several times. The O'Leary Sisters have a very pretty singing and dancing number. They work single and double, sing well and dance delightfully, and came in for a large share of the applause. The pictures, too, have been especially good and receive much favorable comment.

SHERIFF KILLS A PRISONER.

Claimed That Officer Was Attacked by Man He Was Trying to Arrest.
San Antonio, Tex., Dec. 23.—He who was arrested on the charge of intoxication Ignatz Urdanetzi, a Polish farmer near Lockhart, attacked Deputy Sheriff Anton Dreesen. Dreesen pulled his gun and shot Urdanetzi through the heart, killing him instantly. Dreesen is out on bond pending investigation.

Foxy Grandpa.
Found that "What Tommy Did" to "The Little Lamb Prince" was to show "The Foolish Fox" after "Three Little Pigs" and "Black Beauty" and "Mother Goose" indeed "For Dolly and Me" a "Santa Claus Visit" "Uncle Remus and the Little Boy" were "Playmates" "The Night Before Christmas" "Joyful Days" were those with "My Pet" when I was in the "Apple Pie A B C's" "Tom Thumb" saw "Jack the Giant Killer" chasing "Beauty and the Beast" while "Wide Awake" "Playmates" listened to "Bedtime Stories" by "Little Princes" sister Sue" "Little Red Riding Hood" and "Peter Rabbit" heard "Nursery Tales" "For Kitty and Me" and a lot of other juvenile books for the girls at Laidley Johnson's.

BATTLE NEAR TEXAS LINE.

Seven Mexican Soldiers Reported Killed in Fight at Mulato.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 22.—A telephone message from Shafter, Presidio county, received at Marfa says a battle between Mexican revolutionaries and the federalists was fought yesterday at Mulato, a Mexican town on the Texas-Mexican border. Seven soldiers were killed and a number wounded.

The rebels numbered two hundred and the federalists about the same. Robert Dowse, customs collector of Eagle Pass, and Deputy United States Marshal Warren were at Presidio when the report of the battle was received and they will conduct an investigation.

Notice.

Article 20 of the penal ordinances of the City of Greenville provides as follows: If any persons shall fire, discharge, explode or set off any roman candle, rocket, squib, fire crackers or any fire works whatever within the corporate limits he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined any sum not exceeding Ten ($10.00) dollars.

Owing to the continued drought and dry weather it will be exceedingly dangerous to set off fireworks, and for that reason I wish to give notice that this ordinance will be enforced to the letter.

Yours truly,
W. F. NORMAN,
Chief of Police.
